

Lawrence A. Sannicandro is a tax controversy and litigation attorney with Agostino & Associates, P.C., where he counsels individuals, businesses, estates, and trusts at all stages of tax controversies. He regularly represents clients in audits, before the IRS Office of Appeals, in litigation before the United States Tax Court, the United States Court of Federal Claims, and the United States District Courts, and in appellate proceedings before the Federal Courts of Appeals.

Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Sannicandro served as a law clerk for the United States Tax Court, and before that, as an attorney for the IRS. He earned his LL.M. in Taxation from Georgetown University Law Center, J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, and M.B.A. in Finance from Binghamton University.

Mr. Sannicandro is a frequent author and speaker on tax practice, tax procedure, and valuation. He is a co-author of Qualified Appraiser, Qualified Appraisal: Practice, Procedure, Legal Analysis, and Theory (John Wiley & Sons, forthcoming 2017) and Tax Practitioner's Guide to Identity Theft (CCH, Inc. 2015 & 2016). He is the Vice Chair of the American Bar Association Section on Taxation's Committee on Tax Collections, Bankruptcies, and Workouts.
